VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1868 NO. 268

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

[Mrs Elizabeth Cady Stanton, one of the Editors of the "Revolution," the Journal of Woman's Rights in New York, thus searches and exposes the Republican platform. The poetry of this article lies in its truth:]

THE CHICAGO PLATFORM UNDER THE INK.

When Henry Clay was running for the Presidency in 1844, he was told that to carry New York, he must secure the Catholic vote. To this end it was proposed that he should write a letter advocating separate schools for Catholic children—a measure then under consideration—to be read to Bishop Hughes, and thus secure his influence in that direction. Accordingly one of Clay's most polite letters was written, and a gentleman called one day to make the good Bishop a friendly visit, letter in pocket. In the course of conversation, which he skillfully directed towards Clay and the Presidential election, he incidentally drew out the letter and handed it to the Bishop, to prove to him that Clay was sound on that question. The Bishop read it carefully, but without changing the expression of his face, or making any comment, he handed it back to his visitor, who had watched him closely to see what impression it made. Surprised at the Bishop's indifference, he said, "What do you think of that letter?" "Oh!" said the Bishop, coolly, "my misfortune is, I read it under the ink."

In reading the Chicago Platform we discover that it, like Henry Clay's letter, has more meaning under the ink than appears on the surface, and for the benefit of our readers we give a liberal translation.

"A branch of the republican party of the United States assembled in Convention in the city of Chicago on the 21st day of May, 1868, and made the following declaration of policies:"

1. Let us congratulate ourselves on our successful reconstruction policy; which, although maintained by a military despotism that degrades one half the people and loads all with taxes, is nevertheless necessary in our present emergency. Although a standing army to suppress a discontent, that a wise legislation could easily turn into peace and prosperity, is opposed to the genius of our institutions, yet it is not our province to establish principles for national safety, but to bridge over present difficulties with a transient policy that will secure party success.

2. Although it is said to be the duty of Congress to secure a republican form of government in every State of the Union, yet we do not believe in negro suffrage as a principle at the North; Vide our State Constitutions and our late elections. We know there is a seeming contradiction in withholding the ballot from the intelligent black men of the North, who fought bravely under the Union flag in the late war, while we give it to every ignorant plantation hand in the South, but as we need the black vote of the South, which is a very large one, while in the North it is a mere trifle, to perpetuate our republican dynasty, a wise statesmanship can easily reconcile these seeming contradictions.

3. The national honor requires the payment of the public debt, but as it never can be done while we continue to pay bondholders six per cent. in gold, and legislate the enormous profits we now do into National Banks, amounting in sixty-five years to $2,500,000,000, we must, in some way, shirk the responsibility of our own policy. Seeing that our financial policy leads inevitably to Revolution and Repudiation, we must set the dogs of war on the wrong scent, by showing that greenbacks for bondholders is the straight road in that direction. Though we will say as little as possible on this point, lest the great West should perceive that this is a Wall street platform.

4. We see that the working men are waking up to the fact that the policy of McCulloch and Jay Cooke is national suicide, and that the taxes fall mainly on the laboring classes; hence the necessity of a reference at least in our platform to "equalized and reduced taxation." As the masses are easily wheedled with such high sounding phrases as "national honor," and the "great principles laid down in the immortal Declaration," it is better to give them these glittering generalities than promises of any specific redress of their wrongs that we could never fulfill without splitting our party.

5. The national debt is too big a problem for us to solve. We dare not repudiate, and we cannot pay. So do not let us bother our heads about it, but go on with the show, leaving the burthen of our sins on the shoulders of our children, that they may fight the financial scheme with the bondholders, just as our Fathers left us by their wicked compact to fight the battles of slavery for a century.

6. Though this debt was made by inflation it will not do to pay it by inflation.—Though we are growing poorer every day for the lack of a currency to develop our resources, and are grinding Labor to powder by building up a Monied Aristocracy, yet we must keep up appearances, so that foreigners will lend us money at a lower percentage than our own pet bondholders do to day. We know it is the duty of Congress to relieve the present rate of interest, but so long as the bondholders own Congress there is a serious difficulty in the way of its accomplishment.

7. This has been the most corrupt administration since the foundation of the government. Both at our National and State capitals we have witnessed such wholesale demoralization, that we have no faith left in the leading men of our own party. We doubt the honesty of William Pitt Fessenden, and the honor of Chief-Justice Chase; in fact the Mephistophiles, Andrew Johnson, has deceived the very elect. We have been "so shamefully nursed and fostered" in our own corruptions that we now call the gods to grant us some new power and paboulum for our speedy redemption.

8. We mourn the fact that Andrew Johnson has so fully carried out the policy for which we elected him. We chose him from all the prominent candidates, in order to conciliate the South, but he has rather overdone the matter in that direction.—True, we rejected a good New England republican to make way for him, but in Andrew we got more than we contracted for. We tried to impeach him, but we found that he was so intertwined and intertwisted with all our party interests that it was like crucifying our own flesh and blood; to prove him guilty proved too much against ourselves, and so we ended the farce, and his fate, like that of Jeff Davis, is indefinitely postponed.

9. Though 300 naturalized American citizens have been rotting in English prisons for the last three years, sentenced for life, on the mere suspicion of sympathy with Fenians, and one of our distinguished citizens, George Francis Train, has been imprisoned for words spoken on this side of the water, as we had no stomach for a fight with England, we thought best to be still in reference to this whole matter. But now, on the eve of a Presidential campaign, with 1,000,000 Irish voters in this country, some word of sympathy must be extended to the sufferers, and some calm suggestion made to Great Britain to the effect, that "the doctrine if a man is once a subject he is always so, is a relic of Feudal times, not authorized by the laws of nations." When England reads this ninth article of the Chicago platform, let her beware! And let the Irish in this country take courage, and all vote for Grant and Colfax.

10. Of all who were faithful in the late war, let us not forget our brave seamen and soldiers who imperilled their lives in the service of their country. We should regard them, as well as the wives and children of our gallant dead, as the wards of the nation. While the bondholder who rolls in his gilded carriage, clothed in purple and fine linen, demands interest all in gold, do not the boys in blue, maimed, halt and blind, beggars in our streets, appeal as loudly that their bounties and pensions be paid in the same currency? Do not our sick and dying soldiers their starving wives and children, need bread as well as honor? Now is the time to remember all classes, for we shall need their votes in the coming election.

11. We must not forget to congratulate ourselves on the immense flow of immigration to our shores. And we would remind the people of the earth that this is the asylum of the oppressed from all nations, and the republican party is the Moses to lead them through the wilderness of ignorance and poverty to the promised land of specie payments, high tariffs, National banks and manhood suffrage.

12. Being the party of freedom, we extend our sympathy to all oppressed peoples, black and white, struggling for their rights; except women. Any amelioration in their condition would involve such fundamental changes in the functions of the sexes, in the reorganization of society, would necessarily be so new and revolutionary, that we are not prepared to entertain any propositions for their emancipation or enfranchisement.

On this remarkable document the noble Tribune makes no comment for "want of space," with forty-eight columns! at his disposal. Hence we have tried to explain to the people the hidden wisdom of the Chicago platform. For "want of space" we shall reserve our comments until next week.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

It does not strike us that the chances for the nomination of Chief Justice Chase, by the National Democratic Convention at New York, are by any means probable.—His record for the past four months, and his position at present, if well defined, might prove satisfactory to the anti-revolutionary party represented in that body; if so, there is a chance for him, but not otherwise. The elements of opposition in the country to the revolutionary tendencies, shocking corruption and want of patriotism in the Radical party, are being fused and heated and consolidated under the National Democracy, most rapidly. The defeat of Radicalism is the watch word and the rallying cry of every phase of Conservatism in the country. The opposition to the revolutionary and ruinous doctrines and measures of the Radical party is becoming more intense every day. Everywhere, the old devotion of the people to the Constitution is reviving, and their jealousy for the preservation of the Federal Republic is becoming more intense. Whatever prestige Gen. Grant and the Radical party gained, from their success in carrying on the war professedly for the preservation of the Union, has been paled and literally obliterated by the subsequent conduct of the party and its leader, in their efforts to destroy the Constitution, which, when accomplished, leaves the Union but a name. The great body of the people of the United States love the Union and are determined to maintain it, but Consolidation and Union are antipodes to this government. The one destroys the other. The Union, as our fathers established it, is the friend of the States, of personal liberty and of republican institutions. But such a Union as Radicalism seeks to inaugurate obliterates the States, the great guardians of personal liberty and the nurseries of genuine republicanism, and becomes the promoter of imperial, consolidated and despotic power. To this, Conservatism is irreconcilably opposed.

If Judge Chase's friends in the National Democratic Convention can satisfy that body, that he can now be trusted as the banner-bearer of the party of the Constitution, notwithstanding his past unfortunate record in support of Radicalism,—if the anti-revolutionary party of the country can be assured that he would be a safe man in this crisis,—there are some reasons to expect his nomination at New York.

We regard Mr. Pendleton and Mr. Chase as being the choice of the extremes of the Convention. The friends of Mr. Pendleton are most numerous, most ardent and most devoted to their candidate. He is the choice of the old Democracy undoubtedly, and we believe that his views on finance have added greatly to his strength. That they will ultimately prevail in the country, we have no doubt, but, at present, the recollections and impressions of his war record, and the trepidation and jealousy of the bondholders, greatly weaken him at the North.

On the other hand, Judge Chase's record, until recently, is very repulsive, not only to the old Democracy, but to every phase of Conservatism outside of the so-called Republican party. This large element of strength must become reconciled to Judge Chase,—the Democracy must be willing to support him cheerfully, or defeat awaits the party upon his nomination. The strength that Judge Chase, singly and alone, can bring to the Democratic and Conservative cause, is, in itself, small; yet, if combined with the party of the Constitution, it would be certain, we think, to defeat Radicalism and Gen. Grant. It is only in this view, that we think Judge Chase's nomination at all possible.

In the meantime, new names are looming up, upon whom the necessities of the hour may force a concentration, which may leave all those heretofore prominently named outside of the ring. Let the Convention adhere to the great principles which unite the Democratic and Conservative people of the country, first, and then select those men who unite in themselves the most popular elements, and our success is CERTAIN.

THE STRANGEST THING ON RECORD.

A "Governor elect," who is not a Governor, nor, as yet, eligible to the office of Governor, convening a Legislature, which is not a Legislature, under a law, which is not a law, to ratify an amendment to the Constitution of a Government, of which the ratifying State is practically declared to be not a part!

The Tallahassee (Fla.) Sentinel, in a leader on Radical villainies, says:

"In our own State—in this very town—we have seen a man arrested, sent to the military guard-house, released, re-arrested on his bed at midnight, dragged again under a heavy guard to the military guard-house, and from thence sent a prisoner to Fort Marion—because he wrote a personal insult to an officer who had insulted him! And every effort was made, we hear, to have him sent to Tortugas.

Negroes belonging to the Scott party, who made a little noise and exhibited a little pugnacity on election day, were sent off to the military guard-house; which, we think, was all very proper. Gentlemen of character and standing have, we are credibly informed, been flippantly threatened with "Dry Tortugas," because, in a moment of forgetful anger, they have let slip some word that offended the majesty and the omnipotent power of a government official."

The Hon. Reverdy Johnson will probably start for his new scene of duties in England in a week or ten days.

THE CONGRESS.

This body is hurrying up what seem to be the measures necessary to complete reconstruction, and, in some sort, to make such a record as it has time, for the scrutinizing canvass which lies before it. The leaders are looking now to an early adjournment, and it is evident that the signs of the times excite among them trepidation and fear.

The history of Congressional Radical legislation, for the last three years, if properly brought out, will form one of the most searching and condemnatory chapters ever produced against any party. The great interests of peace and the prosperity of the country have been constantly ignored and neglected for the paltry consideration of strengthening the party and securing its power. The course taken by Congress, to secure this object, will form one of the most powerful agencies of its defeat. If there is left, among the masses of the American citizens, any respect and veneration for the Constitution, any concern for the harmony and prosperity of the country, any feelings of patriotism, any love of truth and of the fundamental principles upon which the government was founded;—if the corruption, venality, injustice and usurpation of a party can arouse the indignation of the people,—then the Radical party may look for the most crushing, overwhelming defeat which has ever fallen upon any party.

The Republic can only be saved by the defeat of that party. Should the American people allow it to live beyond the fourth of March next, then may we tremble for liberty and for the Republic. Let the work of defeat be made complete. Let every one opposed to licentiousness in government, to corruption and recklessness in official characters, and to the subversion of our old government, rally to the rescue in this crisis.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

This Radical institution has been continued by Congress for another year from the 16th of July. Commenting upon the monstrosity, the National Intelligencer says that the motive of its proceeding is not even disguised. Now that the States are "reconstructed," the military despotisms which have subsisted in the South since the close of the rebellion can no longer be maintained with any show of right, though the intention was to have continued them, had Impeachment succeeded. The game, therefore, is to substitute this Freedmen's Bureau as a political organization through the South, with a view only of directing the negro vote at the Presidential election.—For this purpose the people of the United States, who are weighed down with taxation, are required to contribute to the maintenance of negroes who claim to govern, but will not labor, and for the benefit of an army of Radical office-holders, who swindle both the Government and the negroes.

In the whole history of this country no fraud so monstrous has ever before been attempted. While industry is oppressed with taxation, and the honest, toiling masses find their labor indifferently compensated, a Radical Congress puts its hand into the public purse, and fishes tens of millions, extorted from worthy white tax-payers, to pamper in vice and vagabondism the degraded instruments of their venal despotism. These Jacobins give the balance of power to ignorant and debauched negroes, who, without property or intelligence, are to legislate for the great interests of the white race of native and adopted citizens; and to secure their favor they take the taxes of these white citizens to bribe their black followers. Oppressed and outraged taxpayers, this is a specimen of Radical legislation! Is it surprising that the public debt should be what it is, when plunder has absorbed at least half of its aggregate, and that the war was continued two years only for the profit of shoddy contractors and a corrupt Congress? The debt is increasing daily, and must continue to swell, while untold millions are added to it to keep up electioneering bureaus and manufactories of negro votes.

EXTRAORDINARY DEMOCRATIC REACTION IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The telegraph informed us yesterday that the Democrats had gained a majority of the districts in South Carolina at the recent local elections, having secured sixteen out of the thirty-one districts. There are about five white districts in the State—Spartansburg, Oconee, Greenville, Anderson and Chesterfield. But this gives only a faint idea of the extraordinary reaction in the popular vote in the State as compared with the vote on the new Constitution. We find that in Union county the Democratic gain has been nearly two thousand, in Kershaw over seventeen hundred, in Laurens over thirteen hundred, in Chester over one thousand, and so on throughout the State. These local elections show the strength of the Conservatives in South Carolina, and are indicative of what they are capable of doing when they bring out their entire force. Besides the practical benefit locally of the Conservatives in the South polling a full vote, the moral effect in the North and West is highly important; and we suggest that hereafter, at every election, there be a united effort in all the Southern States to bring out every Conservative vote that can be relied upon. We have always believed that the white Conservatives, with such sensible colored voters as are not under the thumb screw of the radical carpet-baggers and submissive to arbitrary military direction, are capable of controlling every State in the South. It would be a curious lot to us, not unexpected event to find the Southern States instrumental in electing a Democrat as the next President of the United States. They can do it if they try.—N. Y. Herald.

On Monday the "Mayor" of Petersburg announced to a crowd of idle negroes in the court-room, that he could procure ten of them employment at fifty cents per day with board, and told such, to the number of ten, as wished to avail themselves of the opportunity to get work, to remain in the court-room after the court was adjourned and he would tell them where to go. The court adjourned, but not one of them remained.

Who are gentlemen? This often mooted question is set at rest by the decision of the highest judicial authority in this country.—The Chief Justice on Monday, in sentencing to the penitentiary four felons, addressed them as "gentlemen." One may be a felon and a convict, then, and still a gentleman. The opinion is quite in accordance with the morals of the new order of things.—Rich. Whig.

BISHOP ATKINSON—THE NEWBERN REPUBLICAN.

We alluded, on Tuesday, to the infamous attack of H. J. Menninger, Editor of the Republican, a scurrilous Radical sheet published in Newbern, upon the character of that eminent Divine and Christian gentleman, Bishop Atkinson. The attack was ostensibly prompted, as heretofore stated, by a statement made by the Bishop, in a lecture at Hartford, Conn., relative to the reported great mortality among the blacks about Newbern,—a statement made in the interests of humanity and with a view to the amelioration of the suffering condition of the negroes themselves.

We make, in further connection with this subject, the following extract from a communication, by Maj. Jno. Hughes, to the Newbern Journal of Commerce, which vindicates the statement of the Bishop, exposes the conduct of Menninger, and explains the reasons which have prompted Maj. H. to appear over his own signature:

"I do so because I consider myself in some considerable degree responsible for the statement made by the Bishop. In the Spring of 1867, while I was in attendance upon the Episcopal Convention at Wilmington, the Bishop, in the course of conversation with me, remarked, that on the occasion of a recent visit to Newbern, he had been informed by a physician of position and character, who had an extensive practice, that the then mortality among the negroes was fearful, and that, in his opinion, during the year preceding, it had not fallen short of twenty-five per cent of the entire population, which population in and around Newbern the physician estimated at 10,000. The Bishop went on to remark, that while he had the utmost confidence in this statement, as he knew the gentleman who made it would not wilfully misrepresent, yet that he would prefer to be fortified with statistics; and that he would feel under obligations to me if I would furnish them, for, if the truth was as stated, it showed conclusively that something must be done for the relief of the colored population. I very willingly undertook to furnish the desired information, and immediately upon my return to Newbern sent for John Randolph, a very intelligent colored man who had for some time been engaged in the manufacture of coffins for the Freedmen's Bureau at Newbern, and who cannot be accused of working in the interest of the Democratic party," as he is, I understand, a member of the same Union League with the individual who wrote the original scandalous charge against the Bishop. He very cheerfully furnished me with all the facts in his possession, and I communicated them to the Bishop. His statement was, in substance, that in thirteen months he had made between 2,500 and 2,700 coffins, nearly all of which were used in burying colored people who died during that period in and around Newbern, and that many were buried in coffins made by other [illegible], while some were buried without coffins. In order that no misunderstanding may exist regarding it, I have again seen Randolph this morning, and procured from him a written statement which I append to this communication.

But in addition to this, I desire to give a few figures from others drawn by F. A. Seely, Major and A. Q. M., at Newbern, on John Randolph, Jr., for coffins. They were handed to me to-day, by a gentleman who found them some little time ago, in the shop lately occupied by Randolph, but now in possession of the gentleman who gave the orders to me. These orders are regularly numbered, and as very many were issued in the course of a month, no positive certainty can be arrived at, that in the limited number in my possession, (only 13), I have the first one issued upon the first day selected, and the last one on the last day selected, and, therefore, the number may considerably exceed that hereafter stated, but by no possibility can it be less. The orders only embrace two, showing an interval of exactly a month. The first is dated March 13th, and is numbered 1,714; the other is dated April 13th, and is numbered 1 911; by which it appears that from the 13th of March to the 13th of April, the number of orders for coffins, for immediate use, was 197. From the 3rd day of April to the 13th of the same month, the orders show that 80 coffins were issued, or at the rate of 8 per diem. Doubtless a greater number was issued at other times, but I have not the figures by me to sustain the assertion,—but take the average of 8 per diem, it would make the whole number for the year, 2,920.

Thus it will be seen that the truth of the Bishop's statement is fully vindicated, and that the "falsehood" rests where everybody, who know the Bishop and the author of the charge, must have been satisfied it rested, before this letter was written.

The only error made by the Bishop, (if he made the statement as reported,) is in confining the loss to the village opposite Newbern, where he supposed 10,000 negroes resided. The whole negro population, in and around Newbern, as was stated by the Bishop, was estimated at 10,000, and the deaths referred to were among them, so that the important fact, as to the proportion of deaths to the whole estimated population, is entirely correct.

Very Respectfully,
JOHN HUGHES.

Appended to the letter, is a certificate from Jno. Randolph, the colored man referred to, in which he asserts the entire correctness of Major Hughes' statements.

STAND FIRM.—There can be nothing more important than the preserving intact the organization of the Conservative party in this State, which was effected last spring.—Of course, our only hope of redeeming our State is through the ballot box, and instead of abandoning our party organization it should be strengthened and compacted by every means in our power. Now is the time to work. Don't let the iron get cold. We have every assurance of victory next fall. Thousands of timid men, it is hoped, will then be over the miserable fright which induced them last April to degrade themselves and their country by voting the Radical ticket. Fifteen or twenty thousand heretofore disfranchised voters will be added to the registration lists; thousands of negro votes can be obtained; and last, but not least, we will have the votes counted in public, and the ballot-box guarded by honest men. With these advantages we can beat Radicalism to death if we will but make the effort. Let us do it.—Charlotte Times.

We thought the Bureau was to be dispensed with when the Southern States came in. Instead of that, it is to be continued for another year, and now we look for an increase of the army in these States which were to be all peace and plenty when the Congressional policy of reconstruction had had full play. Well, it has had full play, and what do we see?—the retention of both Bureau and bayonets there in place of their withdrawal. Are these the [illegible] governments we were to have—governments carried on by negroes whom the North is taxed to feed? And is this the peace that Radicalism proposes—a peace maintained by cold steel?—World.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.
No. POLICIES 52,700.
DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.
DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming that company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10 41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7 19, and in 1867, $4 90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,809; in 1866, $3,052,376, and in 1867, $3,120,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,913.29, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $797,207 93 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1868.

SENTINEL FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina, under the new dispensation, will convene, we presume, in this city, early in July.—The general impression is that it will continue its session for three or four months.—The Sentinel, being now the only Daily in the city, the public must rely mainly upon it for the daily proceedings of the General Assembly and the daily telegraphic news.

We are anxious to furnish our readers with a full and correct daily account of its proceedings. This will involve considerable additional expense. The employment of two reporters, one for each House, is an expensive operation, where the remuneration is so slender. There is a desire to have full stenographic proceedings, but the usual additional subscription here is so meagre that it would not pay a tithe of the expense.

We shall do the best we can for our readers and the public. The price of the Daily Sentinel to regular subscribers will remain the same, but those who take it only during the session of the General Assembly will be charged $1 per month. This is as low as it can be afforded.

EDITORIAL CONTENTION.

Although the attendance of our brethren of the Conservative press of the State, on yesterday, was not so full as we had hoped, the "hardness of the times," especially with the craft, constitutes a sufficient explanation of inability to be present.

We were gratified to meet, and to take by the hand, our worthy and excellent friends and co-laborers, Hon. Lewis Hanes, of the Salisbury Old North State; Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal; Capt. Robt. Waring, of the Charlotte Times; Capt. R. A. Shotwell, of the Western Vindicator; Capt. Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro' Southerner; J. (W.) Albright, Esq., of the Greensboro' Times and Patriot; R. M. Furman, Esq., of the Henderson Index; Jordan Stone, Esq., of the Roanoke News; and Jno. B. Robinson, Esq., of the Goldboro' Rough Notes. We are pleased to see them all in good health, and to hear that the respective journals, over which they so ably and efficiently preside, are, in the main, doing as well as circumstances will allow.

The Convention was organized, on yesterday, and had two pleasant sessions.—Matters of much interest to the profession, the public, and the cause, were under advisement and consideration, of which due note will be made in all good time.

ACCEPTABLE AND REFRESHING.—Just at the right time, yesterday afternoon, while hottest and sultriest, a waiter from the Exchange Hotel, loaded with Ice Cream and other delicacies, found its way into our sanctum. We presume that it is hardly worth while to say that ample justice was done to the acceptable remembrance of Dr. McClintock, of the Exchange. The Dr., by the way, "knows how to keep a Hotel," spreads a generous table, and otherwise entertains his guest in excellent style.

MESSRS. W. B. ASTEN & Co., No. 25, Pearl Street, N. Y., advertise Grain and Flour Sacks. They can furnish Grain Sacks of all sizes and qualities. Cotton and Paper Flour Sacks printed to order, &c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Miscellaneous Books, second hand, on consignment,—Nicholson's Encyclopedia: Branson & Jones, Fayetteville Street.

The Fall Session of Louisburg Male Academy will begin on the second Monday in July. Mr. Davis, the former excellent Principal, has associated with himself, in the conduct of this School, Mr. W. J. King, a gentleman of admirable acquirements and capacity. Louisburg is one of the best locations for Schools, Male and Female, in the whole country.

SUPREME COURT.—Our friend, Capt. Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro' Southerner, was, on yesterday, admitted, by the Supreme Court, to practice in the County Courts.

FINE VEGETABLES.—Thanks to the Messrs. Green, in the vicinity of Raleigh, for a lot of fine cucumbers and Irish potatoes,—as large and inviting as any we have seen this season.

TALLAHASSEE, the Capital of Florida, is represented in the State Senate by a Canadian negro, a British subject; and in the House by a full delegation of four negroes, viz: the Hon. Noah Graham, the Hon. Bob Livingston, the Hon. Bob Cox, and the Hon. Bob Wells. "And we'll go holding around."

IT IS rumored that Daddy Kowles wants to be State Geologist under the new regime. Daddy is great on fossils,—he is, in some sort, a fossil himself.

Mississippi is ablaze. Her orators are in the field doing battle gallantly against her proposed Constitution. The whites throughout the State will, it is predicted, turn out in full force against it at the coming election.

STATE ITEMS.

A citizen of Northampton has been made to feel the power of the military. We had hoped, in view of the near approach of so called "reconstruction," that such instances would cease. The Roanoke News says:

"It appears that Mr. W. R. Pepper, an esteemed citizen of that County, had occasion, a short time since, to whip a negro boy for a provoked offence, and, while doing so, the boy's mother interfered. These facts, aggravated to what extent we know not, were reported to the military, and an order was sent to the Sheriff of Northampton for Mr. Pepper's arrest, which from some cause was not executed. Subsequently a similar order was sent to the Sheriff of this County, but Mr. Pepper being beyond his control, Sheriff Reid sent a notice of the order he held to Mr. P., who at once came to this County and surrendered himself. He was sent on to the military authorities, since which time we have heard nothing concerning the affair.

Not being sufficiently acquainted with the facts in the case, we forbear further comment for the present."

The New York World is responsible for the following: "At a late dinner in North Carolina, there sat down to the table three ex Governors, an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court, two ex members of Congress, and some other men of honorable distinction in their State, and the only person in the room who could vote or hold office was the negro who waited on the table. Such is reconstruction."—Wilmington Star.

Mistake, friend Star. The incident alluded to, which is a veritable one, was first related in the Sentinel, from which it was copied into the World.

The Roanoke News is pleased to learn that the corn and cotton crops through that section, as a general thing, have a splendid stand. "In some instances," it says, "the wet weather caused the corn to be injured by a species of worm that bored through it in the ground, which occasioned heavy replanting. But, notwithstanding the extreme backwardness of the spring, should the seasons prove advantageous in the future, the farmers will have an abundant return for their labors. Such a result would be most agreeably felt by every one."

The Commencement exercises of Goldsboro Female College will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, the 1st and 2nd of July. The annual address will be delivered by W. G. Morisey, Esq.

The Wilmington Star is all anxiety to see how many of our new Legislators can, and how many will, take the iron clad. It predicts that some of them will take it, "if it vomits them."

Six more negroes have been confined in Halifax jail,—this time for breaking into the store of Mr. Brickhouse, at Gaston.

Dr. Theodore Martin, near Fayetteville, has about fifty acres "set out" in grape vines,—about 3,000 vines of the russet and black scuppernong, and two or three other good kinds, which he brought from beyond the limits of the State.

The County Court of Mecklenburg (Special Term) has been in session the present week. The Charlotte Times thus gracefully bids it farewell:

"With this term this old and venerable institution, handed down from our English ancestry as a part of the common law, ceases to exist. Radicalism has done its work. This bulwark of the people's rights, and their safeguard against excessive county and local taxes, has to give way to a new system, from the practical operation of which we have nothing to hope. This Court has generally been presided over by gentlemen-justices of known probity and intelligence, and who, being property holders and tax-payers, afforded a guarantee that no burden would be laid on the county that was not absolutely necessary for an economical administration of affairs.

We part with this Court with regret—its Chairman, Associate Justices, Clerk, Solicitor, and all its attaches. A purer or a more efficient set of officers could not be found in the State."

The following rich advertisement appears in the Charlotte Times:

"Cyrus Johnston, the son of Samuel Johnston, has connected himself with Theophilus Johnston, the son of Thomas Johnston, under the administration of Andrew Johnston, to carry on the Grocery business," &c.

Special to the Richmond Dispatch.

THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE FAIL TO AGREE ON THE DIVISION OF TEXAS.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—At a meeting of the Reconstruction Committee this morning, it was found that the members could not agree upon a report to be presented to the House on the division, etc., of Texas, and further consideration of that matter was thereupon postponed for two weeks.

THE VIRGINIA DELEGATION AND THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE—THE COMMITTEE WILL REPORT IN FAVOR OF AN IMMEDIATE ELECTION.

The Virginia delegation mentioned in yesterday's dispatches was before the committee, and requested an act of Congress requiring an immediate election in Virginia, and an appropriation of funds to pay the expenses thereof, and that this election be held upon the registration already made.

The Committee agreed to report a bill in accordance with these suggestions, to-morrow.

THE ARKANSAS AND OTHER BILLS.

The Arkansas bill was delivered to the President on Tuesday the 9th instant, and consequently the constitutional ten days, excluding Sunday, expire on Saturday, the 20th instant.

It is not believed the President will veto this bill, but will allow it to become a law by the expiration of ten days.

Such will probably be the result as to the omnibus bill as to other States, though it is possible the President may deem it proper to send a message to Congress on the subject.

A young man asked an old gentleman for his daughter in marriage. The answer was, "Go into the orchard and bring in a number of apples. Give me one half of the whole number, and the mother one half of the balance and half an apple over, and to the daughter one-half of the remainder and half an apple over, and have one left for yourself, without cutting an apple, and then if she is willing you can have her."—He solved the question, and how many did he bring?

A negro man was mobbed and nearly killed at a Radical meeting at Grenada, Miss., a few days ago, for declaring "that scallawags and carpet-baggers were played out, and that white folks were good enough for him." The military were prevailed upon to rescue him.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 17, 1868.

Messrs. Editors.—Knowing your interest in the prosperity of our literary institutions, let me ask a brief space in your paper for some observations concerning the Wake Forest Commencement, viewing the school from my stand-point.

The impression made upon me by the exercises of the graduates was very favorable indeed, rating scholarship upon the basis of a high moral and practical standing. The tendency seemed to be towards a substantial education, and to provide good morals for each graduate; and the charge by the President in conferring degrees was pointedly to the effect that the young men leaving College would be expected to fulfill the mission of upright, energetic men, adapting themselves to the work of the day and time, which required unusual industry, self-denial, and practical turn of character. The nation must be aided in the work of progress, and the young men assuming responsibilities had this labor to perform.

And from my association with the students generally, (and I saw nearly all,) their sober, steady and genteel bearing impressed me very favorably, leading me to predict for them a high state of proper culture for future life. Not a word of coarse or unrefined meaning was heard; not an act contrary to perfect manners; not a circumstance indicating anything but highest regard for instruction, for the prosperity of the school, for generous rivalry in whatever makes most useful and happy, was exhibited to my eye.

The Professors threw open their doors to visitors with abounding hospitality, all vieing in effort to render the occasion agreeable, and the vast numbers of people honoring Commencement day, (including numbers of beautiful and well dressed ladies from adjoining localities,) properly valued the kindness and ever present attentions of the Faculty, and others composing the representatives of Wake Forest.

The Societies are in fine condition; Libraries large, (numbering 4000 each,) and with the undoubted design on the part of teachers to render the school second to none for solid learning and useful men. I see no reason why this institution, backed as it is by intelligent and wealthy Baptists, should not, even after such a war, flourish rapidly and permanently. I esteem it a most worthy seat of learning, and know no place where youth could be more safely trusted in respect to learning or morals.

SWEETSER'S BOOK OF SUMMER RESORTS.

PARSONAGE, "CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS," New York, June 16, 1868.

EDITORS SENTINEL—GENTLEMEN:—My friend, Mr. Sweetser, the Editor of the "Evening Mail," has just published altogether the best book for Southern tourists I have yet seen. It tells you where to go, how to go, and how much the going will cost you. Persons coming North and wishing to make trips, out of New York, should first of all procure this book.

But my chief object in writing is to take upon myself, in advance, any blame that belongs to the North Carolina portion of the book. At a time when a great pressure was upon me and my health was poor, Mr. Sweetser urged me to prepare something about my own State. It was done hastily and could not be made so full as I desire, but it may induce some Northern tourist to go over the line indicated, and I am sure that it requires only a few intelligent travelers to create an interest in North Carolina to render it a great resort. So many changes have been wrought by the war, that much which I should have written has been omitted, because I had no certain knowledge. For instance, I knew nothing of Shocco Springs and Kittrells, whether they are open, or Beaufort and Smithville, near the sea, whether they have accommodations &c., &c. I wish you would induce your booksellers to order a few copies, (published office Evening Mail, 229 Broadway,) and perhaps, friends along the line will be good enough to furnish the data for a systematic and complete tour of the most interesting portions of North Carolina. To Judge Merrimon and Mr. Theo. H. Hill, I return thanks for valuable suggestions.

Very Respectfully Yours,
CHARLES F. DEEMS.

GOSSIP ABOUT CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

A dispatch from Richmond to the New York Herald says that a report has been current here that Chief Justice Chase would positively decline a nomination by the Democratic Convention. I am authorized to state that such is not the case. If the Democracy adopt a platform in accordance with the well known principles of Mr. Chase, he will serve, with the purpose of proclaiming general amnesty, restoring peace, abolishing military rule, and establishing the finances of the country on a firm basis. Mr. Chase is in receipt of communications from prominent Republicans, East and West, assuring him that if he receives the Democratic nomination on a platform embodying universal suffrage, that they will heartily co operate in his election. The people here are determined to support the New York nominee at any and all hazards. Chief Justice Chase, in company with Gen. Henry A. Wise, visited the African Church yesterday, during divine service.

In another column the Herald says:

Our correspondent in Richmond, Va., communicates under date of June 12th as follows: "Judge Chase during his official stay in this city has won golden opinions from all parties. His character as an upright and fearless statesman, so justly established in his splendid record in the impeachment trial, is fully confirmed by his conduct here. It may be proper to say here that public rumor says that one of the Chief Justice's daughters has captured one of Virginia's most brilliant sons—one whose position and talents, if linked with such a Northern source, might be most fortunate in its public effects. It is only necessary to state that rumor begins the name of this gentleman with A—in order to inform all who are familiar with Virginia politics or literature who this captive is."

AFFAIRS IN MEXICO.

Minister Romero here considers the accounts of Ministerial troubles in Mexico exaggerated. He is very hopeful. The army consists of 25,000 men, and the Government is paying expenses. The demonstrations of the re-actionary Chiefs have been feeble and are becoming daily more so. An early pacification and consolidation of the entire Republic he regards certain.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 18, P. M.

SENATE.—The Post Office Committee reported favorably on the bill establishing a continuous railroad hence to Mobile.

The bill allowing the United States to appeal and a from District Courts, without giving security, passed.

A bill providing that the Senior Associate should act as Chief Justice, when the Chief Justice was disqualified, passed.

A bill allowing the sale of armed vessels to belligerents for commercial purposes, passed.

A bill relieving exporters of rum and spirits was killed.

The Conference Committee on the bill relieving disabilities reported, recommending that Geo. W. Jones, of Tennessee, and Geo. Houston, of Alabama, the only Democrats on the list, be erased, and it was adopted!

Senator Hendricks denounced this action as shamefully partizan.

No Radical Senator ventured to reply.

Ross and Van Winkle voted nay.

The Senate went into Executive session and adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Clerks' bonus bill was tabled—69 to 66. This action effectually kills it.

Resolutions, denunciatory of the Indian treaty ratified by the Senate, passed, declaring that the House will feel bound to refuse an appropriation for its ratification.

The treaty is a small affair with Osage Indians, but is important, as it is the first direct attack on the combined power of the President and Senate to make treaties.

The bill, modifying and essentially limiting the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims, passed.—92 to 42.

This bill, if it becomes a law, will protect Express Companies against innumerable suits.

The River and Harbor bill was postponed to Tuesday next.

Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 18, P. M.

John W. Caldwell, of Ohio, was to-day confirmed as Minister to Bolivia.

A MEMORY

BY MOINA.

One bright memory shines like a star
In the sky of my spirit forever;
And over my pathway it flashes afar
A radiance that perishes never.

One bright memory—only one;
And I walk by the light of its gleaming;
It brightens my days—and when days are done
It shines in the Night o'er my dreaming.

One bright memory—whose golden rays
Illumine the gloom of my sorrows,
And I know that its lustre will gladden my gaze
In the shadows of all my to-morrows.

One bright memory—when I am sad
I lift up eyes to its shining,
And the clouds pass away; and my spirit grows glad;
And my heart hushes all its repining.

One bright memory—all have passed
Back into the shadows forever;
But it, far and fair, bright and true to the last,
Sheds a light that will pass away never.

Shine on—shine always. Thou star of my days
And when Death's starless Night gathers o'er me,
Beam brighter than ever adown on my gaze,
And light the dark valley before me.

Augusta, June 6th.

HOW THEY MAKE GOOD TEMPLARS.

The Syracuse Journal thus tells some "enquirer" about the Good Templar initiation process:

"In the first place the victim of initiation is blindfolded, bound hand and foot, and thrown into the cider press, and pressed for five minutes. This is done for the purpose of clearing his system of "old drinks." He is then taken out of the cider press and by means of a force pump gorged with cistern water, after which a scaling plaster is placed over his mouth and he is rolled in a barrel four or five times across the room; the choir at the same time singing the cold water song. He is now taken out of the barrel and hung up by the heels till the water runs out of his ears. He is then cut down and a beautiful young lady hands him a glass of cistern water. A cold-water bath is then furnished him, after which he is showered with cistern water. He is then made to read the Water Works act ten times, drinking a glass of cistern water between each reading. After which the old oaken bucket is hung around his neck and fifteen sisters, with squirt guns, deluge him with cistern water. He is then forced to eat a peck of snow, while the brothers stick his ears full of icicles. He is then run through a clothes-wringer, after which he is handed a glass of cistern water by a young lady. He is again gorged with cistern water, and his boots filled with the same, and he is laid away in a refrigerator. The initiation is now concluded. After remaining in the refrigerator for the space of half an hour, he is again taken out and given a glass of cistern water, run through a clothes-wringer and becomes a Good Templar."

A freak of nature has been seen in Arkansas, in the shape of a man with three ears. One on each side of his head, and the third, belonging to another fellow, between his teeth.

An eminent statistician announces that "of the twenty nine thousand four hundred and eight young ladies who fainted last year, only seventeen had the misfortune to fall on the floor."

Thomas Hood died composing—and that, too, a humorous poem. He is said to have remarked that he was dying out of charity to the undertaker, who wished to win a lively Hood.

When Madame Rachel saw her stout sister Sarah dressed for the part of a shepherdess, her comment was: "Sarah, dear, you look like a shepherdess who has just dined on her flock."

"Have you read my 'Descent into Hell,' Jerrold?" inquired an author, alluding to a dull poem he had lately published with that title. "No," said Jerrold, "but I should like to see it."

If you run your umbrella through a man's hat, soothe him by saying he needn't apologize for having it in the way. At the same time it would be well to congratulate him it wasn't his body.

John Randolph was once, on a race course, solicited to bet by a stranger, who said: "Smith, here, will hold the stakes." "Just so," replied the descendant of Pocahontas, "but who'll hold Smith?"

A colored youngster in Troy received corporeal punishment at the hands of his ancestors, recently, because his kitten got its head in the milk pitcher. The boy cut off the head to save the pitcher, and then broke the pitcher to get out the head

A toll-gate keeper was brought before a magistrate for cruelty to his daughter.—The trouble arose from a discovery that the girl, who was frequently left in charge, used to allow her sweetheart, a young butcher, to drive his wagon through free. "She never *toll*ed her love."

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st, DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.
Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.
It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.
Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.
Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.
The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.
Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.
The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.
When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.
In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.
No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
